Story Telling

The stories collected by Sara Macnicol sees women from the British Bangladeshi community in Hyde (Greater Manchester) exploring their own life and the historical narratives of their communities through workshops on life history, cross-cultural storytelling and digital skills. Representative from 'Play, Learn, Act' project will read you the stories in this session.

Meet the authors

Three authors from UK are collaborating with the British council this year whom you can meet, talk about their work, exchange your views and even take a selfie. The authors are Sally Pomme Clayton, Jaishree Misra, and Richard Beard.

Coding Workshop

The British Council will offer this coding workshop for young students under the Libraries Unlimited (LU) project. One of the objectives of this programme is to introduce state-of-the-art educational technologies in Bangladesh and spread coding\programming mainly among schoolchildren by introducing DIY (Do it Yourself) toolkits like Kano Computer.

Digital Library

Our digital library is an online database of digital objects that includes books, magazine music, films, theatre or other digital media formats. if you are a book worm or a movie freak, enjoy the collection from our digital library! Be a member of our library and be inspired by our collection.

Science talk from FameLab

Could you inspire and educate a live audience about your work in science, technology, maths or engineering – in just three minutes? FameLab is a global competition to find and support the world's most talented new science communicators. Participants have three minutes to win over the judges and audience with a scientific talk that excels for its content, clarity and charisma.Want to take part?

Flash Poetry by Versemongers

The Versemongers is a poetry collective founded by a group of Bangladeshi poets who aim to improve their craft through regular workshops and performances and become active and engaging participants of the larger arts and culture movement of Bangladesh. They are teaming up with the British Council Bangladesh for an afternoon of flash poetry. The concept is simple. You give them a prompt, tell them a story or even just your experiences and they will write a poem, especially tailored for you.

Active Floor

An interactive floor that makes learning at all age's fun. Active floor promotes collective and differentiated learning styles and needs through play and physical activity. Active Floor is an exciting upgrade to the British Council library which will improve the motivation, concentration and collaboration of the children.

Scholarship bites

The Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan (CSFP) is one of the largest and most prestigious international scholarship schemes in the world. The scholarship scheme enables candidates from low- and middle-income Commonwealth countries to study in the UK. A representative from the British Council will provide information and answer your questions in this session.
